INCO RESEARCH helps beat heat

The raging inferno inside a jet orgine. The The raging inferno inside a jet engine. The blazing depths of an industrial furnacean Even the heating elements in electric ranges, toasters and other household appliances. All these present hot metal problems.

"Inside a jet engine, for instance, tempera-tures may reach 1600°F. Hot enough to make some metals soft, other metals brittle. But jet engine parts can take the blistering punishment of extreme heat. Furnace parts stand up to their job, too. So do heating elements in home appliances.

Why? Largely because of design and metal research. For many years scientists at Inco have been conducting special experiments with nickel. This hard tough metal, wh combined with other metals, adds remark-able resistance to heat and corrosion, anse resistance to heat and corrosion.

Out of this research came a whole new range of high temperature nicket-containing alloys—such as fromed; we do in jet engine, and Incoloy?, for tubular sheathing on electric range eighnents.

When requirements—

electric riage oleffients.

When requirements call for metals capable of withstanding still higher temperatures, when jet engines develop greater power—
and generate preater heat—inco research will be at work developing new alloys to do these jobs well. That's how Inco research helps Canada grow.

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GRO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

GENTLEMEN, THE MACS!

Tomorrow, the fever of victory slightly subsided in their hockey veins, the McFarlands arrive home from their triumphant safari to the Okanagan Valley, British Columbia, in quest of the Allan

They will be greeted by the biggest, most enthusiastic reception ever accorded a city aggregation since the gallant Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment detrained here several years ago.

A hockey-mad city will give them welcoming accolades that not even the famous senior baseball champions of several decades ago received.

No sports aggregation in the history of the city, and few in the annals of the country, defled ad-versity, and made such a gallant last-ditch stand as did the Macs in the last three games ## the Alban

Their adversaries, the Kelowna Packers as gal-lant in defeat as the Macs were valiant in victory, claimed the Eastern champions were "individual-ists."

This was true in a sense for several of the new champions scintillated in many of the games, yet behind it all was a spirit of team play that evi-denced itself only too clearly in that all-import-ant seventh game when once more the Macs roared from behind to score a decisive well-earned &.S.

Playing Coach Ike Hildebrand had a team of champions behind him: But by the same token the team had a coach of championship calibre, both on and off the ice, to guide them.

On not a few occasions his flerce desire, deter-mination and scintillating play pulled them out of a dullish state, and sparked them to victory.

But a good craftsman cannot produce topflight results with poor material. Its knew his players, their temperaments and abilities. When injuries beset the club at crucial moments, Ibs knew what to do, and how to juggle its strongth.

on, not now to jugge it is stronged.

His "reinforcements" came through its grands style. He was thit perhaps in a valinerable spot when two defengement, jost Lephe and Mos Benotl, were sidelined with injuries. Keith Montgomery and Riddle Maricasu were ordered to fill the breach, rinky did, like the champions, they are. "Up front when Dayr Jones was injured Gerry Goyer played brilliantly to full the gap.

Imperturable Gordie, Bell was perhaps the out-standing player on the Macé lineup from an Indi-vidual standpoint. Both Belleville and Kelowna officials and players are agreed on that point. Gordie was brilliant, even in adversity. He was injured on a bouple of occasions, but came back mody's pilap his customary outstanding game.

Russ Eowalchuk, probably the "most hated" man in the eastern league, who backed from no one and sought not a few, showed his critica beyond the slightest shadow of doubt that he too is of championship calibre. Mayor H. J. McFarland championable calibre. Mayor H. J. McFarland wired the winger telling him of his faith in him and his ability. You know the rest. The former Soo winger flashed a spectacular effort ill that seventh game that netted three goals and ultimate victory and the Allan Cup. ,

We do not agree with the Kelowna and British Columbia experts that the Macz were a team of individualists. It took a club of co-operative, co-ordinaded players to whip a squad of the calibre of the Packers whose big forte was team play. That if what the Macs were—and that is why right now they are cudding the Allan Cup somewhere along the CFR right-of-way.

and not a few of the "away" tussies during the past two years. We know their good points, and their faults. For even they, are not perfect. We saw tenue. For even they, are not perfect. We saw them play in the doldrums— and in the heights. But never at any time, especially this season, did we lose faith in them.

. They had a potential that had "champions" written all over it. True it was lacking at times, but when the chips were down it came to the top, and bubbled over, despite injuries. Their greaties was proven in the last three games of the Allan Cup series when they defied adversity and grimly fought to will.

Their finest hour came in the second and third periods of the seventi game, when they huried defiance at a 3-0 deficit, wheel it out through abeer light and guts, and went on in triumph to a well-deserved, well-earned 8-5 victory and the coveled Allan Cup.

J.E.Belliveau digs deep for facts that make headlines

J. E. Belliveau, thought-provoking Toronto Star columnist and reporter, is averybody's idea of an acc newsman - even Hollywood's! Although his specialty is politics, his unerring nose for news often leads him on headline-making detours (a side-trip into Gaspé, for example, once startled the Supreme Court of Canada when Belliveau unearthed new evidence in the sensational Coffin Murder Case). It's crack reporters like this that make the Star an exciting paper to read every night of the week. You'll find lots more entertainment too . . . better features . . . and far, far more pictures in the Toronto Star.

THE OUTSTON OF SPEED TRAPS

THE QUESTION OF SPEED TRAPS

The controversy at Descension concerning the operation of a speed trap is not merely a local squable in cose small Gotaine lower. Beside principles are reduced. The lesses are complex.

Feelings are reducently high. Tel if there was evera cake where there were good arguments for both addes, this would appear to be it.

There are, however, some conclusions on which imbiliand observers might be expected to agree.

Firstly, when all the arguments are weighted, we believe the system of policemens being paid as few concerns shown a believe the system of policemens have the system, but in flustrice. Pew policemens have the system, but some might. The administration of justice should be larged to the source and the system of the source was the system of the source was the system of the source was the system of the system o some might. The administration of justice should be trush above suspicion. At one time the fee psychen had much been wider ecope than it does at present in Ontario. There dense magnitude's or a judge's compensation depends upon size and has been a weapon of extontion in the hands of a valid sew men of unawary memory. The position of the trush produces and is of quite the same, those to does not assess size. The produces are in the compensation of the produces and is of quite the same, those to does not assess size. The compensation of the produces are in the produces are in the compensation of the produces are in the compensation of the produces are in the produces are in the compensation of the produces are in the produces are of key enforcement criticers the fee system is just as form of Incentive pay or a variety of plece-work. Nevertheless, we feel strongly that the size of a policeman's askary about lond etepend on the number of people he hales into court. Other methods of making sure that he is depth sit plot can be followed. This, though, it not just a local problem at Deseronto. The principles apply to policemen errorywhere. Their natures about he fixed and they should be abequate - which is often. The context of the plott at leasn is whether the main function of a policeman is to prevent the law from being broken or to bring law-breakers to justice following infractions. Here we advocate the prevention of a whether the provide a law-breaking, but that preference does not provide a infractions. Here we advocate the prevention of breaking, but that preference does not provide a law-breaking, but that preference does not provide a ready-made answer to the question of whether motorists should be "trapped" or traffic should be "controlled." 'Basically the problem at Deseronto, and in other urban municipalities employing so-called "speed traps," is identical with that facing the Ontario Provincial urban municipalities employing so-called "speed tays," in Menical with that facing the Ontario Provincial blowless in surgest seasching. The Street, and seemed as few forces are seemed as few forc will prove very efficient in alowing down motorists, as they pass through the "trap." But will the preent these motorists from breaking the speed law as soon as they pass the first bend in the road? We fear that it will not. We think that a summons and a fine are likely is prove much more efforcitive. A few experiences with policemen sitting in half-ton trucks, sans cap and the, and looking like farmers night do wonders to prevent infractions of the speed laws. And, if a 30-mile not truck is the speed laws. And, if a 30-mile not truck is the speed laws. And, if a 30-mile not observe to the fined. On the other hand making use of a speed trap as ameans to raise extra revenue to ease the taxpayers oursion is a practice which will be approved by few people.

PERFECTLY CLEAR

The law in this country is perfectly clear: citizens are not to buy lottery tickets or gamble - - with the obvious exceptions, of course, such as penny stocks, blings, horse racing, raffles of cars or boats or trips to Homolutu, or door prires consisting of fully-furn-till terms of the price of the pric ished houses.-(Winnipeg Tribune.)

but a whole series of them.

His reasoning is that there is no hope of settling all the differences between Russia and the West at one summit ropeding. Therefore, he argues, a limited objective should be set and, if the first and easiest problem sived, the leaders should then arrange another meeting, on another problem. "It seems to us that the suggestion that problems the suggestion on that problems the suggestion of the seems of the suggestion of the seems of the suggestion of the suggesti mense.

It may be argued that this approach could best be followed through normal diplomatic channels. This, we submit, overfooks one important fact. The people of the world, on both aides of the Iron Curtain, want of the word, in to take a simple step towards this objective would harm the prestige of their leaders. When elejécites would harm the prestige of their teaders. When diplemats meet ha back room, the prestige of the leaders is not at stakes. But meeting at the aummit-he leaders would find themselves under definite pre-sure to be reasonable. With one simple problem to only, they would lose face it they failed. And, once they got into the habit of agreeting on simple matters, this petting of more complex differences would be made easier. Mr. Smith's suggestion is wortay of careful attern. If there is a case for forbidding a person from registering a motor vehicle unless proof of gancial responsibility is provided - and we think there is -- then this case is just as atrong when the Callaton and the case is just as a strong when the cle's owner is over 21 as when he is under that age.

known as a "two-way" man. Equally expert with camera and pencil, he specialises in human interest stories packed with colour, drama and real-life detail. And, whether he's bringing you face in face with the seldom interviewed strong-arm president of Cuba, or the peanut man on your own corner, Lockhart shows the true reporter's passion for accuracy. Once, to get inside data for a story about housewives, he spent two weeks as a full-time housekeeper for his own family of five. It's colourful newsmen like Lockhart that help make the Toronto Star Canada's most interesting paper. There's more straight news too . . . more special features . . . and far, far more pictures!

A WISE DECISION

Prime Minister John Dielenbaker has acted wisely reversing a previous decision and arranging a debate the House of Commons on the new Canada-U. S. air fence agreement geferor agreement.

Conditions of modern warfare severely limit the biories hereivan feeding against the control which politicians have over the military. De. Many arguments might be proofed from Minister Petrikes is unquestionably right when he raised to construct this proposition of the control which politicians of an air attack involving this raised, but it is best that the military control of the control continent, there might be no time for military officials to consult the government. It is also true that the geographic location of Canada ties her irrevocably to geographic location of Canada ties her irrevocabily for the U.S., in any defence arrangements which can be considered adequate for either party. Canada could not hope to detend herrief without U.S. aid -- nor, it should be streamed, could the U.S. stripely the maximum possible affectuated, against a surprise tack over the North-Pole H Canadá did not co-operate with her. It would be folly for Canada its endeavor to insist on complete independence in her defence plans. If ahe were guilty of such stupidity, it would be unrealistic to expect that the U.S. would not take measures to guard herself des-witte Canada's oposition.

r Canada's opposition.

Yet, when all this ill said, it does not reduce the class. importance of parliamentary consideration of any Authority Authority Authority as been agreement for air defence, but rather enhances the condition returned increasily for such study. War, as Georges Clementary of the condition observed, is much too important a business to be left to the military. The very fact that events could easily Tob civilians of power and vest it all in appointed mili-tary officials makes it imperative that there should be the closest scrutiny of every phase of the arrangements for the assumption of these great powers by these military officials. The government, we may be sure. has given this new agreement the closest study. But, nder our system, that is not enough. The opposition, oo, must be given its opportunity to criticize and sugfirstly such a debate is held in Parliament, nobody an be certain that such a discussion might not produce me timely and valuable suggestions.

TIGHTER CONTROL OF DRUGS NECESSARY

Dr. Raymond C. Smith, consultant at the Toronto the Hospital for Sick Children, would not hold such posts if he were not an expert in his field. Therefore, when Dr. Smith told the Ontario Medical Association that application to the skin of drugs containing sulpha and penicillin can cause acute and occasionally fatal effects these same drugs are administered later in injections for other conditions, we are entitled to presume that he linew what he was talking about.

Il follows that there are a large number of people who could possibly suffer if sulpha drugs or penicillin were ever injected by a doctor treating them, for ointents containing these drugs have been widely dis-

This, we submit, indicates that it is imperative that there be the strictest control over the sale of drugs, particularly of those which are new discoveries and the effects of which have not been fully learned through

Rather obviously, such drugs should only be obtain able on a doctor's prescription, and even this is little mough safeguard, for it is unquestionably true that some doctors have a tendency to prescribe any new wonder drug with great frequency.

In his column of last Friday, Mr. Young few notable observations about the controversial CF-105
Arrow, now being test flown out of Malton airport.
After reading our colleague's column we became aware that there in black and white, for the first time since the Arrow was-born, a Canadian has produced a logical explanation why the aircraft should be produced.

To quote Mr. Young: "Aircraft and engines come-light wherever you buy them. Spend elsewhere, and you build up some other nailon's industry. Spend bere, design and build our own, and we get what we really need. And the money and skills stay in Canada." Almost certainty Mr. Young is not the first Canadian to reach that conclusion, but, as far as we recall, he is the first to role-it.

At this point we find ourselves running short of adjectives to apply to TV and its hold on many house-holds. But that is what you are if you allow TV to take precedence over the people who have come to pass the time of day in conversation with you.

TRADE DEFICIT DECLINES
The sharp decline in Canada's trade deficit in the siter of first four months of this year is heartening news if one listed as does not inquire too closely into how this has been come not inquire too closely into how this has been an achieved. When we learn that it is solely the product be of a stash in imports, the question arises whether it life is not more securablely described as a symptom of the at present altump in business than as a healthy correction when of one of the major defects in our economy during bose in the contract of the Imports dropped by a quarter billion dollars, from 1.89 billion to 1.64 billion. But the decline in exports was less than a tenth of the drop in imports, only $22,300,000.

It would be easy to argue that this merely indicates that Canada's customers are less seriously affected by the recession than is Canada itself. It would be impossible to redute this contention without much more expensive figures than those released by the bureau of es at Ottawa this week. Let us just say that we doubt the validity of the argument -- and for good rea-sons. Much of Canada's exports go to the United

Are These YOUR QUESTIONS About Trusts

"Would my estate be too small to in-terest a Trust Company?" . No estate is too small for us to admin ister as your trustee — to your full advantage or that of your family. "Would the cest be too high?"

No. A fair fee for trustees is estab-lished by law, and it is in proportion to the amount of service the size of the estate requires. Such service might easily save you or yours many times its cost, in just one transaction.

"Will the trustee handle my affairs in toe routine a manner?" Probably not. And by this Company definitely not. Our obligations and responsibilities apply equally to all trusts, regardless of size, and one standard of service — the highest— rendered to all. All the collective experience and mature judgment of our trust officers are focused on each, our trust officers are focused on each, and errey trust. Just how well we would function for your family can be demonstrated for you one—while you can observe it closely—in a "Tan". This is furthly, do not entail forrieture of your control, give us a much to as illule responsibility as you wish. It can be terminated at will or incorporated in your estate plans, and our services save you many interstment and management words. Details at your earliest convenience.

COULD TEST ESCAPE ROUTES

The city's police department several years ago apparently mapped out a system of "escape routies" for rearcustion purposes as a civil defence measure. # NOTICE TO MOTORISTS

Several new laws came into effect on Monday, May 26 that will be of interest to motorists and pedestrians.

They may be summarized as follows:

You must not open the door of a motor vehicle on a street or highway without first making sure that it will not interfere with anyone else. You must not leave a door open, on the traffic side, for longer than necessary to take on or dispharge passengers.

2 Motorists are now permitted to pass on the right 1)

when an overtaken vehicle is making or has signalled a left-hand turn.

ii) on streets and highways, within a city, town or vil-lage which have two or more lanes in each direction.

iii) on one-way streets in cities, towns and villages.

People on rollerskates, skis, sleds and bicycles are prohibited from clinging to vehicles.

4 "Yield Right of Way" signs will now require a motorist to slow down to a reasonable speed to suit existing conditions and to stop if necessary.

5 The driver of a motor vehicle will be held responsible for moving violations.

6 All street crossing against a red light is prohibited. A pedestrian now must wait until a green light or a "Walk" signal is shown be-fore proceeding into the street.

HOUSTON'S

We said:

ANK YOU

Yes, the 2.725 pretty Dominion cashiers from coast to coast rang the cash register, smiled and said: "Thank You" a total of 75,285,632 times over the past fiscal year. Over 75 million customers a record number for Dominion, and they established an all-time record of $312 million in purchases ... an increase of more than $40 million over the previous year.

Imagine how many thousands of shoppers must have switched to Dominion to pile up an increase of $40 million in sales! And more and more are switching to Dominion every week. Why? Because you can cut food costs at Dominion, that's why!

You don't save on every item, of course. Nor do you save a large amount on any one item. But you save a penny here and a penny there. And those pennies add up to a really worthwhile saving—enough to buy lots of other things you would otherwise have to do without.

Why don't you try Dominion this week . . . and cut food costs.

There's a Steady Swing to DOMINION ... Join in!

Are These YOUR QUESTIONS About Trusts

"Would my estate be too small to interest a Trust Company?

No estate iii too small for us to administer as your trustee -- to your full advantage or that of your family.

"Would the cost be too high?"

No. A fair fee for trustees is estab-lished by law, and it is in proportion to the amount of service the size of the estate requires. Such service might easily save you or yours many times its cost, in just one transaction.

"Will the trustee handle my affairs in too routine a manner?"

Probably not. And by this Company definitely not. Our obligations and responsibilities apply equally to al trusts, regardless of size, and on standard of service — the halphose—is rendered to all. "All the collective appreciace and metaury judgment of our trust officers are focused on sead of error trust.
